

NEW Introduction to Counselling Workshop

Have you ever considered a career in counselling but not sure if it is for you?

Why not attend our workshop. The aims of the workshop are to:

To explore what is counselling

To introduce the different modalities of counselling

To discuss the necessary qualifications needed for counselling and how to find a course that is right for you

To explore two key aspects of counselling training: self-awareness and personal development

To experience a taster by partaking in some self-awareness and personal development exercises

One day course 10am – 3pm on the following dates:

Friday 12th June / Saturday 5th September / Saturday 21st September
